

Chan Ji Kim composes for dance, chamber ensembles, orchestra, multimedia performances and electroacoustic music. Most recently, her music was performed by the internationally known Bartók Trio ensemble in Malaga, Spain. Her major performances include the International Music Days in Constanta, Romania, International Double Reed Society conference, the Berlin New Music Concert performed by Anton Webern Quartet, the New Music Society concert in Seoul, Korea, the International New Music Consortium concert series in Bucharest, Romania, the Summer Music Festival in Florence and Assisi, Italy, the Florida Electroacoustic Music Festival, Congress of the International Alliance of Women in Music, ICIA composition recital at the Symphony Space in New York City, the Society of Composers, Inc. national conference, the Millennium Dance Concert in New York City, and the World Music Days in Timisuara, Romania. Her music has been published by TrevCo Music and The Sejong Cultural Society, and is also available on CD "Mosaic" by Emeritus and on "The Era of Modern Bassoon CD collection" by Akashibu Gakufu in Japan.

Dr. Kim is a native of Korea, studied music composition at E-Wha Women's University in Korea (BA), New York University (MA), and University of Florida (Ph.D). She is Associate Professor of Music at the Brevard Community College in Florida.

More info at www.chanjikim.net